

Micah 1:3~ For, look! Yehowah¹ is going forth from his place, and he will certainly come down and tread upon earth's high places.

Footnote: See Appendix 1C §2

1· Micah now calls attention to the fact that Yehowah God has come down from his heavenly dwelling, and he will certainly come down and tread upon earth's high places, and that all earth's inhabitants should take note of this.

[Question] What does Micah now relate to the people that Yehowah God is doing, and who should take note of this?

2· But our God is in the heavens, everything that he delighted to do he has done. (Psalms 115:3)

[Question] What things does Yehowah God do, both in heaven and on earth?

3· For, look! Yehowah is coming forth from his place, to call to account the error of the inhabitant of the land against him, and the land will certainly expose her bloodshed, and will no longer cover over her killed ones. (Isaiah 26:21)

[Question] Why is Yehowah God coming forth from his own place, and what will he expose within the land, that is being covered over?

4· And a spirit proceeded to bear me along and I began to hear behind me the sound of a great rushing; Blessed be the glory of Yehowah from his place. (Ezekiel 3:12)

[Question] What voice did Ezekiel hear while being carried along by a spirit?

5· He kept making him ride upon earth's high places, so that he ate the produce of the field. And he kept making him suck honey out of a crag, and oil out of a flinty rock. (Deuteronomy 32:13)

[Question] How did Yehowah God bless and protect his people Israel, while in the wilderness?

6· Happy you are, O Israel! Who is there like you, a people enjoying salvation in Yehowah, the shield of your help, and the One who is your eminent sword? So your enemies will cringe before you, and you, upon their high places you will tread. (Deuteronomy 33:29)

[Question] Why should Israel have been a happy people, and how would their enemies feel before them, because of Yehowah God?

- 7· For, look! The Former of the mountains and the Creator of the wind, and the One telling to earthling man what his mental concern is, the One making dawn into obscurity, and the One treading on earth's high places, Yehowah, the God of armies, is his name. (Amos 4:13)

[Question] How does Amos describe Yehowah God to his people?

- 8· Do lift up your steps to the long-lasting desolations. Everything the enemy has treated badly in the holy place. (Psalms 74:3)

[Question] How did the Psalmist bemoan the treatment of Israel by her enemies?

- 9· And people will enter into the caves of the rocks and into the holes of the dust, because of the dreadfulness of Yehowah and from his splendid superiority, when he rises up for the earth to suffer shocks. (Isaiah 2:19)

[Question] How will people come to feel, and what will they do to escape the anger of Yehowah God, when he comes forth in judgment?

- 10· O, if only you had ripped the heavens apart, that you had come down, that on account of you, the very mountains had quaked. (Isaiah 64:1)

[Question] How did Isaiah show, that men do not take seriously enough, Yehowah God's anger against them?
