

Galatians 4:1~ Now I say that as long as the heir is a babe, he does not differ at all from a slave, lord of all things though he is.

- 1· Now Paul shows, that as long as the heir is a babe, he does not differ very markedly from a slave's son, even though he is going to inherit greater things later in life. Yet as he grows nearer to gaining his inheritance, then he matures and gains responsibility and knowledge.

[Question] What differences in a slave and a son, only come later in life?

[Question] What must the son gain before becoming eligible for his inheritance?

- 2· And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and he continued subject to them. Also, his mother carefully kept all these sayings in her heart. (Luke 2:51)

[Question] Who was Jesus Christ subject to throughout all his early life?
