

~ADVANTAGE (111)

[English, benefit, lead, gain, plus, pro, improvement, help, Opposite of - disadvantage]

- Work produces advantage, but talk alone comes up short.
- By every kind of toil there comes to be an advantage, but merely the word of the lips tends to want. (Proverbs 14:23)
- Planning is to our advantage, but being hasty can cause us to lose our advantage.
- The plans of the diligent one surely make for advantage, but everyone that is hasty surely heads for want. (Proverbs 21:5)
- Solomon saw that there was no advantage under the Sun for all men die and lose their possessions.
- And I, even I, turned toward all the works of mine that my hands had done and toward the hard work that I had worked hard to accomplish, and, look! Everything was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing of advantage under the sun. (Ecclesiastes 2:11)
- What advantage is there for the doer in what he is working hard at? (Ecclesiastes 3:9)
- Wisdom leads to advantage foolishness does not.
- And I saw, even I, that there exists more advantage for wisdom than for folly, just as there is more advantage for light than for darkness. (Ecclesiastes 2:13)
- The one possessing an abundance of good things has no advantage except to look upon his good things.
- When good things become many, those eating them certainly become many. And what advantage is there to the grand owner of them, except looking at them with his eyes? (Ecclesiastes 5:11)
- What advantage does the wise have over the stupid ones.

- For what advantage does the wise have over the stupid one? What does the afflicted one have in knowing how to walk in front of the living ones? (Ecclesiastes 6:8)
- Many things we trust in are vanity for what advantage do they produce.
- Because there exist many things that are causing much vanity, what advantage does a man have? (Ecclesiastes 6:11)
- The advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves alive its owner.
- For wisdom is for a protection the same as money is for a protection, but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom itself preserves alive its owners. (Ecclesiastes 7:12)
- If an iron tool has become blunt and someone has not whetted its edge, then he will exert his own vital energies. So the using of wisdom to success means advantage. (Ecclesiastes 10:10)
- If the serpent bites when no charming results, then there is no advantage to the one indulging in the tongue. (Ecclesiastes 10:11)
- It would gain him more advantage to hang a millstone around his neck and be tossed into the open sea than for one to stumble one of his Christian brothers.
- It would be of more advantage to him if a millstone were suspended from his neck and he were thrown into the sea than for him to stumble one of these little ones. (Luke 17:2)
- Paul counseled his brothers for their advantage, not so as to become their master.
- But this I am saying for your personal advantage, not that I may cast a noose upon you, but to move you to that which is becoming and that which means constant attendance upon the Lord without distraction. (1 Corinthians 7:35)
- As for any one of those I have dispatched to you, I did not take advantage of you through him, did I? (2 Corinthians 12:17)

- I urged Titus and I dispatched the brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you at all, did he? We walked in the same spirit, did we not? In the same footsteps, did we not? (2 Corinthians 12:18)
- Christians should seek the advantage of others ahead of their own.
- Let each one keep seeking, not his own advantage, but that of the other person. (1 Corinthians 10:24)
- Even as I am pleasing all people in all things, not seeking my own advantage but that of the many, in order, that they might get saved. (1 Corinthians 10:33)
- Allow room for us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one. (2 Corinthians 7:2)