

~AMASAI 2 (26)

(A-ma'sai) [shortened form of Amasiah]

- The head of 30 men from the tribes of Judah and Benjamin who joined David at Ziklag. To allay David's fear of treachery, spirit itself enveloped Amasai as he pledged their wholehearted support, acknowledging that Yehowah was David's helper.
- And some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah proceeded to come clear to the place difficult to approach, to David. (1 Chronicles 12:16)
- Then David went out before them and answered and said to them; If it is for peace that you have come to me to help me, my own heart will become at unity with you. But if it is to betray me to my adversaries when there is no wrong on my palms, let the God of our forefathers see to it and set it in order. (1 Chronicles 12:17)
- And spirit itself enveloped Amasai, the head of the thirty. Yours we are, O David, and with you we are, O son of Jesse. Peace, peace be yours, and peace to the one helping you, for your God has helped you. So David received them and put them among the heads of the troops. (1 Chronicles 12:18)
