

~ARK 3 (63)

- The container made of acacia wood in which the second set of stone tablets of the Law given Moses on Mount Sinai were temporarily kept until the ark of the testimony was constructed some months later.
- At that particular time Yehowah said to me, Carve for yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones, and come up to me into the mountain, and you must make an ark of wood for yourself. (Deuteronomy 10:1)
- And I shall write upon the tablets the words that appeared on the first tablets, which you shattered, and you must place them in the ark. (Deuteronomy 10:2)
- So I made an ark of acacia wood and carved two tablets of stone like the first one's and went up into the mountain, and the two tablets were in my hand. (Deuteronomy 10:3)
- Then he wrote upon the tablets the same writing as the first, the Ten Words, which Yehowah had spoken to you in the mountain out of the middle of the fire in the day of the congregation, after which Yehowah gave them to me. (Deuteronomy 10:4)
- Then I turned and went down from the mountain and placed the tablets in the ark that I had made, that they might continue there, just as Yehowah had commanded me. (Deuteronomy 10:5)

- And it came about that as soon as they saw that there was a great deal of money in the chest, the secretary of the king and the high priest would come up, and they would bind it up and count the money that was being found at the house of Yehowah. (2 Kings 12:10)
