- Judas betrayed Jesus by giving away his location to the chief priests so that they could silently in cover of night arrest and try him and offer him up to be impaled. This betrayal was serious sin the Bible stating that it would have been better for Judas if he had never been born.
- Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed him. (Matthew 10:4)
- It was while they were gathered together in Galilee that Jesus said to them; The Son of man is destined to be betrayed into men's hands. (Matthew 17:22)
- True, the Son of man is going away, just as it is written concerning him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been finer for him if that man had not been born. (Matthew 26:24)
- Then he came to the disciples and said to them; At such a time as this you are sleeping and taking your rest! Look! The hour has drawn near for the Son of man to be betrayed into the hands of sinners. (Matthew 26:45)
- Then Judas, who betrayed him, seeing he had been condemned, felt remorse and turned the thirty silver pieces back to the chief priests and older men. (Matthew 27:3)
- Saying; I sinned when I betrayed righteous blood. They said, What is that to us? You must see to that! (Matthew 27:4)
- And Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed him. And he went into a house. (Mark 3:19)
- True, the Son of man is going away, just as it is written concerning him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been finer for that man if he had not been born. (Mark 14:21)

- And he came the third time and said to them; At such a time as this you are sleeping and taking your rest! It is enough! The hour has come! Look! The Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. (Mark 14:41)
- Because the Son of man is going his way according to what is marked out, all the same, woe to that man through whom he is betrayed! (Luke 22:22)
