

~DALETH (47)

(da'leth)

- The fourth letter of the Hebrew alphabet. There is considerable similarity between the letters da'leth and rehsh, allowing for possible scribal errors in copying. This may account for various differences in spelling, such as that of the Rodanim at;
- And the sons of Javan were Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Rodanim. (1 Chronicles 1:7)
- And the Dodanim at;
- And the sons of Javan were Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Dodanim. (Genesis 10:4)
- In the Hebrew, this fourth letter is used as the initial letter in the first word of each of the eight verses of;
- My soul has been cleaving to the very dust. Preserve me alive according to your word. (Psalms 119:25)
- I have declared my own ways, that you may answer me. Teach me your regulations. (Psalms 119:26)
- Make me understand the way of your own orders, that I may concern myself with your wonderful works. (Psalms 119:27)
- My soul has been sleepless from grief. Raise me up according to your word. (Psalms 119:28)
- Remove from me even the false way, and favor me with your own law. (Psalms 119:29)
- The way of faithfulness I have chosen. Your judicial decisions I have considered appropriate. (Psalms 119:30)
- I have cleaved to your reminders. O Yehowah, do not put me to shame. (Psalms 119:31)
- I shall run the very way of your commandments, because you make my heart have the room. (Psalms 119:32)
