

~DIDRACHMA (13)

- A Greek silver coin having the value of two drachmas, or $1.31 according to modern values. The Jews paid a yearly temple tax of two drachmas, or a didrachma.
- After they arrived in Capernaum the men collecting the two drachmas tax approached Peter and said;
- Does your teacher not pay the two drachmas tax? (Matthew 17:24) Footnote
