

~EVI (36)
(E'vi)

- One of the five Midianite kings or chieftains who were put to death at the time Israel's army fought under Moses in executing Yehowah's vengeance upon Midian for seducing Israel to attach itself to the Baal of Peor.
- These Midianite kings were dukes, allies, or vassals of Sihon king of the Amorites. Their territory was given to the tribe of Reuben.
- Let there be a harassing of the Midianites, and you men must strike them. (Numbers 25:17)
- Because they are harassing you with their deeds of cunning that they committed against you cunningly in the affair of Peor and in the affair of Cozbi the daughter of a chieftain of Midian, their sister who was fatally struck in the day of the scourge over the affair of Peor. (Numbers 25:18)
- And they killed the kings of Midian along with the others slain, namely, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the five kings of Midian, and they killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword. (Numbers 31:8)
- Then Moses made a gift to the tribe of the sons of Reuben by their families. (Joshua 13:15)
- And all the cities of the tableland and all the royal realm of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, and whom Moses struck, together with the chieftains of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the dukes of Sihon, who were dwelling in the land. (Joshua 13:21)
