

~EXERT (27)

[English, put forth, use, apply, bring to bear, wield, exercise, make use of]

- With a blunt iron tool not whetted one has to exert his own vital energies to sharpen it.
- If an iron tool has become blunt and someone has not whetted its edge, then he will exert his own vital energies. So the using of wisdom to success means advantage. (Ecclesiastes 10:10)
- Jesus counseled all to exert themselves vigorously to get in through the narrow door.
- Exert yourselves vigorously to get in through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will seek to get in but will not be able. (Luke 13:24)
- Paul in his tribulations requested the brothers to exert themselves in prayer for him
- Now I exhort you, brothers, through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the spirit, that you exert yourselves with me in prayers to God for me. (Romans 15:30)
