

~EXTOLLING (21)

[English, praising, exalting, commending, eulogizing, admiring, worshipping, Opposite of, deprecating]

- The Psalmist was extolling Yehowah with his tongue.
- To him I called with my mouth, and there was an extolling with my tongue. (Psalms 66:17)
- Let the songs extolling God be in their throat, and a two-edged sword be in their hand. (Psalms 149:6)
- The people near to the temple were extolling Peter and John for the miraculous works they had performed through Yehowah's hand.
- True, not a one of the others had the courage to join himself to them, nevertheless, the people were extolling them. (Acts of Apostles 5:13)