

~FADED (47)

[English, gray, dull, washed out, pale, discolored]

- Samuel points to a turn around that would happen to God's people so that even she who was abundant in sons has faded away.
- The satisfied must hire themselves out for bread, but the hungry actually cease to hunger. Even the barren has given birth to seven, but she that was abundant in sons has faded away. (1 Samuel 2:5)
- Isaiah points to a time of mourning when the land fades away and the productive land withers.
- The land has gone to mourning, has faded away. The productive land has withered, has faded away. The high ones of the people of the land have withered. (Isaiah 24:4)
- Later Jeremiah who lived through that time showing that the very gates of Jerusalem had faded away and her rejoicing had become dejection.
- Judah has gone mourning, and its very gates have faded away. They have become dejected to the earth, and even the outcry of Jerusalem has gone up. (Jeremiah 14:2)
- The woman giving birth to seven has faded away. Her soul has struggled for breath. Her sun has set while it is yet day. It has become ashamed and felt abashed. And to the sword I shall give the mere remnant of them before their enemies, is the utterance of Yehowah. (Jeremiah 15:9)
- Joel pointed to this coming destruction showing that the toil of the land and its produce would fade away.
- The field has been despoiled, the ground has gone to mourning, for the grain has been despoiled, the new wine has been dried up, the oil has faded away. (Joel 1:10)
- The vine itself has shown dryness, and even the fig tree has faded away. As for the pomegranate tree, also the palm tree and the apple tree, all the trees of the field, they have dried up, for exultation has gone ashamed away from the sons of mankind.

(Joel 1:12)
