

~FEELS (48)

[English, senses, experiences, suffers, undergoes, is aware of]

- Jacob, an identical twin of Esau, knew exactly what his father would do to test him out and feared that his deception might be discovered. He was afraid that his father would feel him to tell him apart for his father had done this many times before as his eyes began to fail. Esau would have more hair grow on his arms because he lived in the wilderness exposed to the elements whereas Jacob lived in tents.
- What if my father feels me? Then I shall certainly become in his eyes like one making a mockery, and I shall certainly bring upon myself a malediction and not a blessing. (Genesis 27:12)
- Job when under severe test and ill health felt a loathing toward his life of bitterness.
- My soul certainly feels a loathing toward my life. I will give vent to my concern about myself. I will speak in the bitterness of my soul! (Job 10:1)
- Job wrongly felt that Yehowah feels no compassion for him because of the severity of his testing.
- His archers encircle me. He splits open my kidneys and feels no compassion. He pours out my gallbladder to the very earth. (Job 16:13)
- The Shulamite maiden put the other virgins under oath not to try to make her feel inclined to lovemaking.
- I have put you under oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the female gazelles or by the hinds of the field, that you try not to awaken or arouse love in me until it feels inclined. (Song of Solomon 2:7)
- I have put you under oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the female gazelles or by the hinds of the field, that you try not to awaken or arouse love in me until it feels inclined. (Song of Solomon 3:5)

- I have put you under oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you try not to awaken or arouse love in me until it feels inclined.
(Song of Solomon 8:4)
