

~FINISHING (51)

[English, final, concluding, last, ultimate, dying, Opposite of, opening]

- The Israelites finished the killing of the people of Ai.
- And it came about that while Israel was finishing the killing of all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness in which they had pursued them, they kept falling, all of them, by the edge of the sword until they came to their end. After that all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. (Joshua 8:24)
- Elisha in a prophetic enactment of the fall of Syria had an arrow shot to depict Yehowah's salvation to the finishing point.
- Then he said; Open the window to the east. So he opened it. Finally Elisha said; Shoot! So he shot. He now said; Yehowah's arrow of salvation, even the arrow of salvation against Syria! And you will certainly strike down Syria at Aphek to the finishing point. (2 Kings 13:17)
- And the man of the true God grew indignant at him, hence he said, It was meant to strike five or six times! In that case you would certainly be striking down Syria to the finishing point, but now it is three times that you will strike down Syria. (2 Kings 13:19)
- Daniel in vision prophesied about 3 ½ times which would be about a finishing of the dashing of the power of the holy people to pieces.
- And I began to hear the man clothed with the linen, who was up above the waters of the stream, as he proceeded to raise his right hand and his left hand to the heavens and to swear by the One who is alive for time indefinite. It will be for an appointed time, appointed times and a half. And as soon as there will have been a finishing of the dashing of the power of the holy people to pieces, all these things will come to their finish. (Daniel 12:7)
- Paul wanted Corinthian Christians to finish up the promised gift in order for it to be really ready, but based upon what they really could afford to give.

- Now, then, finish up also the doing of it, in order, that, just as there was a readiness to want to do, so also there should be a finishing up of it out of what you have. (2 Corinthians 8:11)
