- Let there be a removing of the wicked one from before the king, so that his throne will become firmly established through righteousness itself.
- Let there be the removing of the wicked one before the king, and his throne will be firmly established by righteousness itself.

(Proverbs 25:5)

- Where a king is judging the lowly ones in trueness, his throne will be firmly established forever.
- Where a king is judging the lowly ones in trueness, his throne will be firmly established for all time. (Proverbs 29:14)
- In the final part of the days the house of Yehowah God will become firmly established above the tops of the mountains, or powerful governments of the earth.
- And it must occur in the final part of the days that the mountain of the house of Yehowah will become firmly established above the top of the mountains, and it will certainly be lifted up above the hills, and to it all the nations must stream. (Isaiah 2:2)
- And it must occur in the final part of the days that the mountain of the house of Yehowah will become firmly established above the top of the mountains, and it will certainly be lifted up above the hills, and to it peoples must stream. (Micah 4:1)
- The rule of the Messiah, the Greater David, will bring peace without end, and Yehowah God will firmly establish it, and sustain it, by means of justice and righteousness to time indefinite.
- To the abundance of the princely rule and to peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom in order to establish it firmly and to sustain it by means of justice and by means of righteousness, from now on and to time indefinite. The very zeal of Yehowah of armies will do this. (Isaiah 9:7)
- In loving-kindness a throne is certainly firmly established.
- And in loving-kindness a throne will certainly be firmly established, and one must sit down upon it in trueness in the tent of David, judging and seeking justice and being prompt in righteousness. (Isaiah 16:5)
- Eliakim was given the robe and sash of Shebna, which was then firmly bound about him.
- And I will clothe him with your robe, and your sash I shall firmly bind about him, and your dominion I shall give into his hand, and he must become a father to the inhabitant of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. (Isaiah 22:21)

- But this old system has neither a set course, or firm direction, it will therefore not meet its goals. When it falls, there will be spoil in abundance to be divided up, so that even lame ones will actually collect up a great amount of spoil.
- Your ropes must hang loose. Their mast they will not hold firmly erect. They have not spread a sail. At that time even spoil in abundance will have to be divided up. The lame ones themselves will actually take a big plunder. (Isaiah 33:23)
- Yehowah God as the creator of the earth did not create it for no purpose, but he firmly established it so as to be inhabited.
- For this is what Yehowah has said, the Creator of the heavens, He the true God, the Former of the earth and the Maker of it, He the One who firmly established it, who did not create it simply for nothing, who formed it even to be inhabited; I am Yehowah, and there is no one else. (Isaiah 45:18)
- Every single stone of this spiritual house will be hand selected by Yehowah God, our spiritual father and the overseer of our spiritual lives. He intimately knows each son, their thinking patterns and their spiritual qualities. He will place each one just as it suits him. Thus she will be firmly established in righteousness.
- You will prove to be firmly established in righteousness itself. You will be far away from oppression, for you will fear none, and from anything terrifying, for it will not come near you. (Isaiah 54:14)
- Yehowah God firmly established the productive land through his wisdom and power.
- He is the Maker of the earth by his power, the One firmly establishing the productive land by his wisdom, and the One who by his understanding stretched out the heavens. (Jeremiah 10:12)
- Then Yehowah will multiply his people like the sands of the seas as in the times of long ago. The way of the truth will then become firmly established. Also, all of the oppressive nations, that abused his people down through time, he will give his attention to them, and bring them to ruin. True worship will be given a place on earth, a place of honor and respect for the thousand years.

- And his sons must become as in former times, and before me his own assembly will be firmly established. And I will turn my attention upon all his oppressors. (Jeremiah 30:20)
