

~HASTY (26)

[English, quick, speedy, hurried, swift, rapid, rushed, fast, Opposite of, slow]

- The hasty one surely heads for want.
- The plans of the diligent one surely make for advantage, but everyone that is hasty surely heads for want. (Proverbs 21:5)
- Someone hasty with his words is worse off than the stupid one.
- Have you beheld a man hasty with his words? There is more hope for someone stupid than for him. (Proverbs 29:20)
- Mankind should seriously consider any and all communications with Yehowah not being hasty to criticize.
- Do not hurry yourself as regards your mouth, and as for your heart, let it not be hasty to bring forth a word before the true God. For the true God is in the heavens but you are on the earth. That is why your words should prove to be few. (Ecclesiastes 5:2)
