

~HERDERS (34)

[English, ones Who, group, gather a flock, gather a drove, gather a pack]

- A quarrel arose between Abram's herders and Lot's.
- And a quarrel arose between the herders of Abram's livestock and the herders of Lot's livestock, and at that time the Canaanite and the Perizzite were dwelling in the land. (Genesis 13:7)
- When asked by Pharaoh about the occupation of his relatives Joseph said that they were herders.
- Then Pharaoh said to his brothers; What is your occupation? So they said to Pharaoh; Your servants are herders of sheep, both we and our forefathers. (Genesis 47:3)
- The herders of the swine the ran over a cliff when possessed by demons went into the city and related the entire matter to the people there.
- But the herders fled and, going into the city, they reported everything, including the affair of the demon-possessed men. (Matthew 8:33)
- But the herders of them fled and reported it in the city and in the countryside, and people came to see what it was that had happened. (Mark 5:14)
- But when the herders saw what had happened, they fled and reported it to the city and to the countryside. (Luke 8:34)