- After the destruction of all false religion by the nations, Yehowah will again raise up a loyal remnant, who will joyfully follow the lead provided by the Son of Man on the earth. He will establish them on earth and give them a place of rest, and will gather them together to a place of refuge, and there shelter them from nations who stand in opposition. He will then raise up true worship to a place of respect and honor worldwide under the Son of Man.

- And there will come to be a booth for a shade by day from the dry heat, and for a refuge and for a hiding place from the rainstorm and from the precipitation. (Isaiah 4:6)
- True justice is wise, loving and merciful. Justice is not faultfinding, nit-picking or cold and harsh. Men who love justice, weigh matters carefully, they try to see beyond an eye for an eye. They look to the needs of the whole person and the community, and then carefully weigh the correct course. Their purpose is always to bring back or recover the erring ones, with refreshing waters of truth and loving comfort, to effect repentance, and thus help others to avoid the wind of Yehowah's divine anger.
- And each one must prove to be like a hiding place from the wind and a place of concealment from the rainstorm, like streams of water in a waterless country, like the shadow of a heavy crag in an exhausted land. (Isaiah 32:2)
- Yes, why have the Governing Body of Jehovah's Witnesses taken to lying, by calling truth apostasy and by withholding fine scriptural counsel from God's people? They truly have forgotten the way of Yehowah. The answers to all of these questions were right in the book, Revealing The Sons Of God, but they refused to take any of it to heart.
- It was Yehowah himself who kept silent, and was hiding matters about the drama of Joseph, so that these wicked men might be caught in their error, and God's purpose might be accomplished. Because of not seeing his presence, they were in no fear of him, and acted wickedly toward their brother the Greater than Joseph, the Son of Man.
- Whom did you become frightened at and begin to fear, so that you took up lying? But I was not the one that you remembered. You took nothing to your heart. Was I not keeping silent and hiding matters? So you were in no fear even of me. (Isaiah 57:11)
- Daniel was then with others, and they saw something, but he alone saw the vision of a man. Meanwhile, they became afraid and ran away and went to hiding.
- And I saw, I Daniel by myself, the appearance, but as for the men that happened to be with me, they did not see the appearance. However, there was a great trembling that fell upon them, so that they went running away in hiding themselves. (Daniel 10:7)

- Then Yehowah God asks Israel, through Amos, if a lion will give out its hiding place, by roaring in a forest, when it has no prey. Or will a maned young lion reveal to other animals where it is hiding, if it has caught nothing at all. Through these examples Yehowah God shows that he has given his voice through his prophets, and the people of the land must pay attention to his presence among them, just as the lion roars upon gaining his prey, to frighten off other animals from his catch.
- Will a lion roar in the forest when it has no prey? Will a young maned lion give forth its voice from its hiding place if it has caught nothing at all? (Amos 3:4)
- Yehowah then shows how this lion among nations was faring, for he was tearing to pieces enough for his cubs, or whelps, and was strangling food for his lioness. Thus he kept his caves and covert hiding places filled with dead animals torn to pieces.
- The lion was tearing to pieces enough for his whelps, and was strangling for his lionesses. And he kept his holes filled with prey and his hiding places with animals torn to pieces. (Nahum 2:12)
- Then Yehowah's brightness came to be just like the light of the sun. He had two rays issuing out of his hand, and there was the hiding of his wonderful strength.
- As for his brightness, it got to be just like the light. He had two rays issuing out of his hand, and there the hiding of his strength was. (Habakkuk 3:4)
