

~HOPEFULLY (17)

[English, with any luck, with a bit of luck, good expectation]

- All mankind look hopefully to Yehowah God to provide them with food and good things in abundance.
- To you the eyes of all look hopefully, and you are giving them their food in its season. (Psalms 145:15)
- Those dying cannot look hopefully to Yehowah for their daily needs.
- For it is not Sheol that can laud you. Death itself cannot praise you. Those going down into the pit cannot look hopefully to your trueness. (Isaiah 38:18)
