(Im'mer)

- Father of the priest Pashhur, an opposer of Jeremiah who had the prophet put in stocks. Jeremiah prophesied that Pashhur and all his house would be taken to Babylon.
- Now Pashhur the son of Immer, the priest, who was also the leading commissioner in the house of Yehowah, kept listening to Jeremiah while prophesying these words. (Jeremiah 20:1)
- Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet and put him into the stocks that were in the Upper Gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of Yehowah. (Jeremiah 20:2)
- And as for you, O Pashhur, and all the inhabitants of your house, you will go into captivity, and to Babylon you will come and there you will die and there you yourself will be buried with all your lovers, because you have prophesied to them in falsehood. (Jeremiah 20:6)
- If the designation the son of Immer is to be understood as denoting a descendant rather than an actual son, this Immer may be IMMER 1
