- The representation of a hand indicates that Yehowah will help or give the Son of Man a hand of assistance to understand matters there in Judah that he cannot see, but that Yehowah does see. As a father may grab a child by a tuft of hair to impress upon him the importance and seriousness of a matter, so Yehowah now does to the Son of Man.
- Then he thrust out the representation of a hand and took me by a tuft of hair of my head, and a spirit carried me between the earth and the heavens and brought me to Jerusalem in the visions of God, to the entrance of the inner gate that is facing northward, where the dwelling place is of the symbol of jealousy that is inciting to jealousy. (Ezekiel 8:3)

- Is it wise for Christians to try to incite Yehowah to jealousy? We are certainly not able to overpower him are we. He demands exclusive devotion to him and to his son, our espoused one, and anything less is spiritual harlotry and disloyalty. There is one God, and we must confine our godly devotion to this one, and to him alone.
- Or are we inciting Yehowah to jealousy? We are not stronger than he is, are we? (1 Corinthians 10:22)
