

~INITIATED (20)

[English, started, began, kicked off, opened, commenced, set off, instigated, made the first move, Opposite of, finished]

- Jesus initiated sending his disciples out in twos to participate in the preaching of the Good News.
- Now he summoned the twelve, and he initiated sending them out two by two, and he began to give them authority over the unclean spirits. (Mark 6:7)
- Paul spoke of the Corinthian Christians both wanting to give and initiating the effort to collect their kind gift for all the holy ones.
- And in this I render an opinion. For this matter is of benefit to you, seeing that already a year ago you initiated not only the doing but also the wanting to do. (2 Corinthians 8:10)