

~JEHOHANAN 2 (29)

(Je-ho-ha'nan) [Yehowah Has Shown Favor, Yehowah Has Been Gracious]

- An army chief under King Jehoshaphat, in direct charge of 280,000 men of Judah.
- And Jehoshaphat continued advancing and growing great to a superior degree, and he went on building fortified places and storage cities in Judah. (2 Chronicles 17:12)
- And these were their offices by the house of their forefathers; Of Judah the chiefs of thousands, Adnah the chief, and with him there were three hundred thousand valiant, mighty men. (2 Chronicles 17:14)
- And under his control there was Jehohanan the chief, and with him there were two hundred and eighty thousand. (2 Chronicles 17:15)
- And under his control there was Amasiah the son of Zichri the volunteer for Yehowah, and with him there were two hundred thousand valiant, mighty men. (2 Chronicles 17:16)
- Possibly the same as,

See Also JEHOHANAN 3