

~LAMEDH (33)
(la'medh)

- The 12th letter in the Hebrew alphabet. La'medh corresponds generally to the English letter I. In the Hebrew, the psalmist uses this letter at the beginning of each of the eight verses at;
 - To time indefinite, O Yehowah, your word is stationed in the heavens. (Psalms 119:89)
 - Your faithfulness is for generation after generation. You have solidly fixed the earth, that it may keep standing. (Psalms 119:90)
 - According to your judicial decisions they have stood till today, for they are all your servants. (Psalms 119:91)
 - If your Law had not been what I am fond of, then I should have perished in my affliction. (Psalms 119:92)
 - To time indefinite I shall not forget your orders, because by them you have preserved me alive. (Psalms 119:93)
 - I am yours. O save me, because I have searched for your own orders. (Psalms 119:94)
 - For me the wicked have waited, to destroy me. To your reminders I keep showing myself attentive. (Psalms 119:95)
 - To all perfection I have seen an end. Your commandment is very broad. (Psalms 119:96)