

~LAUGHS (43)

[English, expresses amusement, chuckles, giggles, snickers, hoots, snorts, cackles, chortles, guffaws, falls down laughing, doubles up, Opposite of, cries]

- The book of Job states that the Zebra laughs at the turmoil of a town, favoring secluded places in the wilderness.
- It laughs at the turmoil of a town, the noises of a stalker it does not hear. (Job 39:7)
- The Book of Job shows that the female ostrich laughs at the horse, for she can outrun it.
- At the time she flaps her wings on high, she laughs at the horse and at its rider. (Job 39:18)
- The Book of Job also shows that the horse laughs at dread and does not turn back because of the sword.
- It laughs at dread, and is not terrified, nor does it turn back on account of a sword. (Job 39:22)
- The Hippopotamus laughs at the rattling of a javelin.
- A club has been regarded by it as mere stubble, and it laughs at the rattling of a javelin. (Job 41:29)
- The industrious wife laughs at a future day for she is well prepared to meet it.
- Strength and splendor are her clothing, and she laughs at a future day. (Proverbs 31:25)
- The Chaldeans laugh at every fortified place for no fortified place has stood its ground against them.
- And for its part, it jeers kings themselves, and high officials are something laughable to it. For its part, it laughs even at every fortified place, and it piles up dust and captures it. (Habakkuk 1:10)

