

~LOATHE (30)

[English, hate, dislike, detest, cannot stand, cannot bear, despise, abhor, abominate, Opposite of, adore]

- Everything in the seas not having scales was a loathsome thing to Israelites and they were not to eat, or even touch them.
- Yes, they will become a loathsome thing to you. You must not eat any of their flesh, and you are to loathe their dead body. (Leviticus 11:11)
- Among the birds they were to loathe the eagle, osprey and black vulture among others.
- And these are what you will loathe among the flying creatures. They should not be eaten. They are a loathsome thing, the eagle and the osprey and the black vulture. (Leviticus 11:13)
- Israelites were not to bring any detestable things into their houses thus making themselves devoted to destruction like the devoted thing. They should thoroughly loathe such things.
- And you must not bring a detestable thing into your house and actually become a thing devoted to destruction like it. You should thoroughly loathe it and absolutely detest it, because it is something devoted to destruction. (Deuteronomy 7:26)