

~MARVELED (65)

[English, wondered, Thought about an, awesome sight, amazing thing, sensation, miracle, spectacle, phenomenon]

- Well when they heard this reply they marveled, and had nothing to say in response, and so they left.
- Well, when they heard that, they marveled, and leaving him they went off. (Matthew 22:22)
- So Zechariah asked for a tablet to be brought to him, and upon it he wrote the name John. And so they all marveled over this.
- And he asked for a tablet and wrote; John is its name. At this they all marveled. (Luke 1:63)
- Then all those who had heard marveled over the things that were then told them by the shepherds.
- And all that heard marveled over the things told them by the shepherds. (Luke 2:18)
- Jesus then marveled at what the army officer's slaves had reported to him, and he told them that with no one else within Israel, had he found so great a faith.
- Well, when Jesus heard these things he marveled at him, and he turned to the crowd following him and said; I tell you, not even in Israel have I found so great a faith. (Luke 7:9)
- So he said to them; Where is your faith? For they were doing God's will and were accompanying his son, and there was nothing really to fear because of this. Yet they were struck with fear over what they had seen and heard asking one another; Who really is this person? For they saw that even the winds and the sea obeyed him.
- Then he said to them; Where is your faith? But struck with fear, they marveled, saying to one another; Who really is this, for he orders even the winds and the water, and they obey him? (Luke 8:25)

- Later he was expelling a dumb demon from a demon possessed man and after he did so the man was able to speak again. At seeing this the crowds simply marveled.
- Later he was expelling a dumb demon. After the demon came out, the dumb man spoke. And the crowds marveled. (Luke 11:14)
- Now when Moses approached the thornbush, he marveled at the sight of it, yet as he was approaching to it to investigate it further, Yehowah's voice came to him.
- Now when Moses saw it he marveled at the sight. But as he was approaching to investigate, Yehowah's voice came. (Acts of Apostles 7:31)