[English, Persons Who, interfere, butt in, stick your nose in, intrude, intervene, pry, Opposite of, ones who disregard]

- Paul showed that if the congregation took care of the expenses of younger widows that they would spend their time going about unoccupied and as gossipers and meddlers in other people's business.
- At the same time they also learn to be unoccupied, gadding about to the houses, yes, not only unoccupied, but also gossipers and meddlers in other peoples affairs, talking of things they ought not. (1 Timothy 5:13)
