

~MENTIONING (24)

[English, talking about, stating, citing, bringing up, declaring, pointing out, revealing, referring to, Opposite of, concealing]

- The chief of the cupbearers was mentioning his own sins to Pharaoh when he told him about Joseph and his ability to interpret dreams.
- Then the chief of the cupbearers spoke with Pharaoh, saying; My sins I am mentioning today. (Genesis 41:9)
- Bildad wrongly attributed to God the tearing to pieces of Job in his anger calling him an apostate and that the very mentioning of him would cease.
- The very mentioning of him will certainly perish from the earth, and he will have no name out in the street. (Job 18:17)
- Paul continued mentioning the Ephesians in his prayers.
- Do not cease giving thanks for you. I continue mentioning you in my prayers. (Ephesians 1:16)