

~MIZPAH 1 (25)

(Miz'pah)[Mizpeh, Miz'peh, meaning Watchtower]

- A region inhabited by Hivites and situated at the base of Mount Hermon was known as the land of Mizpah.
- The Canaanites to the east and the west, and the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Jebusites in the mountainous region and the Hivites at the base of Hermon in the land of Mizpah. (Joshua 11:3)
- At least part, if not all, of this area may also have been called the valley plain of Mizpeh.
- Then Yehowah gave them into Israel's hand, and they went striking them and pursuing them as far as populous Sidon and Misrephoth-maim and the valley plain of Mizpeh to the east, and they kept striking them until they had not let a survivor of theirs remain. (Joshua 11:8)
- The land of Mizpah possibly was the region around Banyas, Caesarea Philippi, to the South of Mount Hermon or the plain East of Mount Hermon along the Wadi et-Teim.
