

~OBSCURING (18)

[English, difficult to understand, incomprehensible, unclear, vague, ambiguous, doubtful, murky, unintelligible, Opposite of, obvious]

- Yehowah asked Job just who was obscuring counsel with words without knowledge.
- Who is this that is obscuring counsel by words without knowledge? (Job 38:2)
- Later Job recanted his previous arguments as lacking in understanding now that he had heard the true counsel of God.
- Who is this that is obscuring counsel without knowledge? Therefore I talked, but I was not understanding things too wonderful for me, which I do not know. (Job 42:3)