

~PALTITE (34)

(Pal'tite) [Of, or belonging to, Beth-pelet, or, Of, or belonging to, the House of Pelet]

- A term used with reference to Helez, one of David's mighty men and generally believed to refer to a native of Beth-pelet.
- These are the names of the mighty men that belonged to David; Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite, the head of the three. He was brandishing his spear over eight hundred slain at one time. (2 Samuel 23:8)
- Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. (2 Samuel 23:26)
- In the corresponding lists at;
- Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite. (1 Chronicles 11:27)
- The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite of the sons of Ephraim, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. (1 Chronicles 27:10)
- The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite of the sons of Ephraim, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. (1 Chronicles 27:10)
- Helez is called, the Pelonite.

See Also PELONITE