

~PRUDENTLY (49)

[English, carefully, cautiously, sensibly, practically, discreetly, wisely,
Opposite of, recklessly]

- When Saul sent David out he always acted prudently so that he was appointed over all the men of war by Saul.
- And David began going out. Wherever Saul would send him he would act prudently, so that Saul placed him over the men of war, and it seemed good in the eyes of all the people and also in the eyes of the servants of Saul. (1 Samuel 18:5)
- And David was continually acting prudently in all his ways, and Yehowah was with him. (1 Samuel 18:14)
- And Saul kept seeing that he was acting very prudently, so that he was scared of him. (1 Samuel 18:15)
- And the princes of the Philistines would go out, and it would happen that as often as they went out David acted most prudently of all the servants of Saul, and his name came to be very precious. (1 Samuel 18:30)
- Acting prudently would include keeping all the Laws and judicial decisions and commandments of Yehowah God.
- And you must keep the obligation to Yehowah your God by walking in his ways, by keeping his statutes, his commandments and his judicial decisions and his testimonies, according to what is written in the Law of Moses, in order, that you may act prudently in everything that you do and everywhere that you turn. (1 Kings 2:3)
- Hezekiah acted prudently before Yehowah God and so he proceeded to rebel against the king of Assyria and refused to serve him.
- And Yehowah proved to be with him. Wherever he would go out, he would act prudently, and he proceeded to rebel against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. (2 Kings 18:7)