

2 Samuel 10:11 And he went on to say; If the Syrians become too strong for me, then you must serve as a salvation for me, but if the sons of Ammon themselves become too strong for you, I must also come to save you.

[2] - References:

- And he went on to say; If the Syrians become too strong for me, you must also serve as a salvation for me, but if the sons of Ammon themselves become too strong for you, I must also save you. (1 Chronicles 19:12)
- By counsel plans themselves are firmly established, and by skillful direction carry on your war. (Proverbs 20:18)