

1 Kings 15:19 There is a covenant between me and you, between my father and your father. Here I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Come, do break your covenant with Baasha the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me.

[2] - References:

- The gift is a stone winning favor in the eyes of its grand owner. Everywhere that he turns he has success. (Proverbs 17:8)
- There is a covenant between me and you and between my father and your father. Here I do send you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Baasha the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me. (2 Chronicles 16:3)