

Isaiah 55:11~ So my word that goes forth from my mouth will prove to be. It will not return to me without results, but it will certainly do that in which I have delighted, and it will have certain success in that for which I have sent it.

1• God's word and collected wisdom, are then likened to rain and snow. His thoughts and wisdom will not simply run out to sea, accomplishing nothing, but they will certainly saturate the earth and make things grow. The Bible is hands-down the most widely published book on earth.

[Question] What then does God compare his thoughts and divine wisdom to?

[Question] Like rain what will they surely accomplish?

[Question] How widely published is the Bible today?

2• It will cause these plants, men and women, to grow spiritually, providing both bread, spiritual instruction for the eater, and seed, a means of regenerating this food through many generations, the Bible. It will certainly accomplish, that in which Yehowah God delights, bringing all willing men to a higher spiritual plane.

[Question] Who will then grow, from this spiritual watering through divine wisdom?

[Question] What bread and seed, will then be produced?

[Question] What is it, that Yehowah thus delights to see come from all this spiritual watering?

3• And the deluge went on for forty days upon the earth, and the waters kept increasing and began carrying the ark and it was floating high above the earth. (Genesis 7:17)

[Question] How did Yehowah protect his people from a worldwide flood, and where did they ride?

4• The Bible will have certain success, in accord with the purpose for which God sent it, to teach mankind his wisdom and truth, so that they could return to him, being now, more god-like. If men want to live like animals, then there is no point in their living forever, for there is no progress spiritually.

[Question] What success then, will the Bible surely have among mankind?

[Question] What would be pointless, if men wanted to live that way?

[Question] How have those who choose to believe in the lie of evolution, chosen such a course?
