

Lamentations 1:11 All her people are sighing, they are looking for bread. They have given their desirable things for something to eat, in order to refresh the soul.¹ See, O Yehowah, and do look, for I have become as a valueless woman.²

Footnote: Soul Hebrew, na'phesh; Latin, a'ni-mam See Appendix 4A

Footnote: The Hebrew word for valueless is Feminine singular, as if a woman representing the city is speaking

- O my lord the king, these men have done bad in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the cistern, so that he will die where he is because of the famine. For there is no bread anymore in the city. (Jeremiah 38:9)
- In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine also got to be severe in the city and there proved to be no bread for the people of the land. (Jeremiah 52:6)
- To their mothers they kept saying; Where are grain and wine? Because of their fainting away like someone slain in the public squares of the city, because of their soul being poured out into the bosom of their mothers. (Lamentations 2:12)
- The tongue of the suckling has cleaved to its palate because of thirst. Children themselves have asked for bread. There is no one dealing it out to them. (Lamentations 4:4)
- And let me get a piece of bread, and refresh YOUR hearts. Following that, YOU can pass on, because that is why YOU have passed this way to YOUR servant. At this they said; All right. You may do just as you have spoken. (Genesis 18:5)
- Do you people refresh me with cakes of raisins, sustain me with apples, for I am lovesick. (Song of Solomon 2:5)
- Cry out joyfully, you barren woman that did not give birth! Become cheerful with a joyful outcry and cry shrilly, you that had no childbirth pains, for the sons of the desolated one are more numerous than the sons of the woman with a husbandly owner, Yehowah has said. (Isaiah 54:1)
- In time the money from the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan was spent, and all the Egyptians began coming to Joseph, saying;

- Give us bread! And why should we die in front of you because money has run out? (Genesis 47:15)
- I have called to those intensely loving me. They themselves have tricked me. In the city my own priests and my own old men have expired, while they had to look for something to eat for themselves that they might refresh their soul. (Lamentations 1:19)
 - May all their badness come before you, and deal severely with them, just as you have dealt severely with me on account of all my transgressions. For my sighs are many, and my heart is ill. (Lamentations 1:22)
 - And he continued saying to me; Son of man, here I am breaking the rods around which ring-shaped loaves are suspended, in Jerusalem, and they will have to eat bread by weight and in anxious care, and it will be by measure and in horror that they will drink water itself. (Ezekiel 4:16)
