- I have called with my whole heart. Answer me, O Yehowah. Your regulations I will observe. (Psalms 119:145)
- Yehowah has thought of bringing the wall of the daughter of Zion to ruin. He has stretched out the measuring line. He has not turned back his hand from swallowing up. And he causes rampart and wall to go mourning. Together they have faded away. (Lamentations 2:8)
- O that my head were waters, and that my eyes were a source of tears! Then I could weep day and night for the slain ones of the daughter of my people. (Jeremiah 9:1)
- And if you will not hear it, in places of concealment my soul will weep because of pride and will positively shed tears, and my eye will run down with tears, because the drove of Yehowah will have been carried captive. (Jeremiah 13:17)
- And you must say to them this word; Let my eyes run down with tears night and day and let them not keep still, for with a great crash the virgin daughter of my people has been broken, with an extremely sickish stroke. (Jeremiah 14:17)
- Over these things I am weeping as a woman. My eye, my eye is running down with waters. For a comforter has become far away from me, someone to refresh my soul. My sons have become those laid desolate, for the enemy has put on great airs. (Lamentations 1:16)
