

Ecclesiastes 10:14 And the foolish one speaks many words. Man¹ does not know what will come to be, and that which will come to be after him, who can tell him?

Footnote: Literally, The earthling man Hebrew, ha-'a-dham'

[11] - References:

- In the abundance of words there does not fail to be transgression, but the one keeping his lips in check is acting discreetly. (Proverbs 10:19)
- The tongue of wise ones does good with knowledge, but the mouth of the stupid ones bubbles forth with foolishness. (Proverbs 15:2)
- Do not make your boast about the next day, for you do not know what a day will give birth to. (Proverbs 27:1)
- For who is there knowing what good a man has in life for the number of the days of his vain life, when he spends them like a shadow? For who can tell man what will happen after him under the sun? (Ecclesiastes 6:12)
- For there is no one knowing what will come to be, because who can tell him just how it will come to be? (Ecclesiastes 8:7)
- Whereas you do not know what your life will be tomorrow. For you are a mist appearing for a little while and then disappearing. (James 4:14)
- Is there an end to windy words? Or what galls you, that you answer? (Job 16:3)
- Anyone holding back his sayings is possessed of knowledge, and a man of discernment is cool of spirit. (Proverbs 17:27)
- And I have seen that there is nothing better than that the man should rejoice in his works, for that is his portion, because who will bring him in to look on what is going to be after him? (Ecclesiastes 3:22)
- For a dream certainly comes in because of abundance of occupation, and the voice of a stupid one because of the abundance of words. (Ecclesiastes 5:3)

- The heart of the wise is at his right hand, but the heart of the stupid at his left hand. (Ecclesiastes 10:2)