- As for Ahithophel, he saw that his counsel had not been acted upon, and he proceeded to saddle an ass and rise up and go off to his house at his own city. Then he gave commands to his household and strangled himself and thus died. So he was buried in the burial place of his forefathers. (2 Samuel 17:23)
- And they proceeded to hang Haman on the stake that he had prepared for Mordecai, and the king's rage itself subsided. (Esther 7:10)
- A pit he has excavated, and he proceeded to dig it, but he will fall into the hole that he went making (Psalms 7:15)
- The nations have sunk down into the pit that they have made, in the net that they hid, their own foot has been caught. (Psalms 9:15)
- He that is excavating a pit will fall into the same, and he that is rolling away a stone, back to him it will return. (Proverbs 26:27)
- Just as when a man flees because of the lion, and the bear actually meets him, and as when he went into the house and supported his hand against the wall, and the serpent bit him. (Amos 5:19)
- And if they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, from there I shall carefully search and be certain to take them. And if they conceal themselves from in front of my eyes on the floor of the sea, down there I shall command the serpent, and it must bite them. (Amos 9:3)
- The righteousness of the upright ones is what will deliver them, but by their craving those dealing treacherously will themselves be caught. (Proverbs 11:6)
- He that is causing the upright ones to go astray into the bad way will himself fall into his own pit, but the faultless ones themselves will come into possession of good. (Proverbs 28:10)
