- Look! The best thing that I myself have seen, which is pretty, is that one should eat and drink and see good for all his hard work with which he works hard under the sun for the number of the days of his life that the true God has given him, for that is his portion. (Ecclesiastes 5:18)
- And I myself commended rejoicing, because mankind have nothing better under the sun than to eat and drink and rejoice, and that it should accompany them in their hard work for the days of their life, which the true God has given them under the sun. (Ecclesiastes 8:15)
- Now the eyes of Israel were dull from old age. He was unable to see. Accordingly he brought them close to him, and he then kissed them and embraced them. (Genesis 48:10)
- Before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark, and the clouds have returned, afterward the downpour. (Ecclesiastes 12:2)
- Most truly I say to you, When you were younger, you used to gird yourself and walk about where you wanted. But when you grow old you will stretch out your hands and another man will gird you and bear you where you do not wish. (John 21:18)
- And I, even I, turned toward all the works of mine that my hands had done and toward the hard work that I had worked hard to accomplish, and, look! Everything was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing of advantage under the sun. (Ecclesiastes 2:11)
- There exists one, but not a second one, also no son or brother does he have, but there is no end to all his hard work. Also, his eyes themselves are not satisfied with riches; And for whom am I working hard and causing my soul to lack in good things? This too is vanity, and it is a calamitous occupation. (Ecclesiastes 4:8)

- Remember of what duration of life I am. Is it all in vain that you have created all the sons of men? (Psalms 89:47)
