- Surely in a semblance man walks about. Surely they are boisterous in vain. One piles up things and does not know who will be gathering them. (Psalms 39:6)
- And I, even I, hated all my hard work at which I was working hard under the sun, that I would leave behind for the man who would come to be after me. (Ecclesiastes 2:18)
- All this I have seen, and there was an applying of my heart to every work that has been done under the sun, during the time that man has dominated man to his injury. (Ecclesiastes 8:9)
- This is what is calamitous in all that has been done under the sun, that, because there is one eventuality to all, the heart of the sons of men is also full of bad, and there is madness in their heart during their lifetime, and after it, to the dead ones! (Ecclesiastes 9:3)
- Look! You have made my days just a few, and my life's duration is as nothing in front of you. Surely every earthling man, though standing firm, is nothing but an exhalation. (Psalms 39:5)
- And I, even I, turned toward all the works of mine that my hands had done and toward the hard work that I had worked hard to accomplish, and, look! Everything was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing of advantage under the sun. (Ecclesiastes 2:11)
- For to the man that is good before him he has given wisdom and knowledge and rejoicing, but to the sinner he has given the occupation of gathering and bringing together merely to give to the one that is good before the true God. This too is vanity and a striving after wind. (Ecclesiastes 2:26)
- Better is the seeing by the eyes than the walking about of the soul. This too is vanity and a striving after the wind. (Ecclesiastes 6:9)

- Then he said to them; Keep YOUR eyes open and guard against every sort of covetousness, because even when a person has an abundance his life does not result from the things he possesses. (Luke 12:15)
- And I hated life, because the work that has been done under the sun was calamitous from my standpoint, for everything was vanity and a striving after wind. (Ecclesiastes 2:17)
- So better than both of them is the one who has not yet come to be, who has not seen the calamitous work that is being done under the sun. (Ecclesiastes 4:3)
- The greatest vanity! Said the congregator, everything is vanity. (Ecclesiastes 12:8)
- Son of man, prophesy, and you must say; This is what the Sovereign Lord Yehowah has said; Howl, YOU people; Alas for the day! (Ezekiel 30:2)
