

Ecclesiastes 1:8 All things are wearisome, no one is able to speak of it. The eye is not satisfied at seeing, neither is the ear filled from hearing.

[4] - References:

- As regards anything besides these, my son, take a warning; To the making of many books there is no end, and much devotion to them is wearisome to the flesh. (Ecclesiastes 12:12)
- Sheol and the place of destruction themselves do not get satisfied, neither do the eyes of a man get satisfied. (Proverbs 27:20)
- There exists one, but not a second one, also no son or brother does he have, but there is no end to all his hard work. Also, his eyes themselves are not satisfied with riches; And for whom am I working hard and causing my soul to lack in good things? This too is vanity, and it is a calamitous occupation. (Ecclesiastes 4:8)
- In fact, all Athenians and the foreigners sojourning there would spend their leisure time at nothing but telling something or listening to something new. (Acts of Apostles 17:21)