- I engaged in greater works. I built houses for myself, I planted vineyards for myself. (Ecclesiastes 2:4)
- Look! The best thing that I myself have seen, which is pretty, is that one should eat and drink and see good for all his hard work with which he works hard under the sun for the number of the days of his life that the true God has given him, for that is his portion. (Ecclesiastes 5:18)
- See life with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life that He has given you under the sun, all the days of your vanity, for that is your portion in life and in your hard work with which you are working hard under the sun. (Ecclesiastes 9:9)
- Then Solomon lay down with his forefathers, and was buried in the City of David his father, and Rehoboam his son began to reign in place of him. (1 Kings 11:43)
- From men, by your hand, O Yehowah, from men of this system of things, whose share is in this life, and whose belly you fill with your concealed treasure, who are satisfied with sons and who do lay up for their children what they leave over. (Psalms 17:14)
- Surely in a semblance man walks about. Surely they are boisterous in vain. One piles up things and does not know who will be gathering them. (Psalms 39:6)
- But God said to him; Unreasonable one, this night they are demanding your soul from you. Who, then, is to have the things you stored up? (Luke 12:20)
- On that day King Ahasuerus gave to Esther the queen the house of Haman, the one showing hostility to the Jews, and Mordecai himself came in before the king, because Esther had told what he was to her. (Esther 8:1)
- Then the king removed his signet ring that he had taken away from Haman and gave it to Mordecai, and Esther went on to place Mordecai over the house of Haman. (Esther 8:2)

- For he sees that even the wise ones die, together the stupid one and the unreasoning one perish, and they must leave to others their means of maintenance. (Psalms 49:10)
