

Jeremiah 34:5 In peace you will die, and as with the burnings for your fathers, the former kings who happened to be prior to you, so they will make a burning for you, and Alas, O master! Is what they will say in lament for you, for I myself have spoken the very word, is the utterance of Yehowah.

- As I am alive, is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Yehowah, in the place of the king who put in as king the one that despised his oath and that broke his covenant, with him in the midst of Babylon he will die. (Ezekiel 17:16)
- And it came about that in the days to come, even when the term of two full years had expired, his intestines came out during his sickness, and he gradually died in his bad maladies, and his people did not make a burning for him like the burning for his forefathers. (2 Chronicles 21:19)
- So they buried him in his grand burial place that he had excavated for himself in the City of David, and they laid him in the bed that had been filled with balsam oil and different sorts of ointment mixed in an ointment of special make. Further, they made an extraordinarily great funeral burning for him. (2 Chronicles 16:14)
- Therefore this is what Yehowah has said concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, They will not wail for him; Alas, my brother! And alas, my sister! They will not wail for him; Alas, O master! And alas, his dignity! (Jeremiah 22:18)
- The very breath of our nostrils, the anointed one of Yehowah, has been captured in their large pit, the one of whom we have said; In his shade we shall live among the nations. (Lamentations 4:20)
- In that day one will raise up concerning you people a proverbial saying and will certainly lament a lamentation, even a lamentation. One will have to say; We have positively been despoiled! The very portion of my people he alters. How he removes it from me! To the unfaithful one he apports out our own fields. (Micah 2:4)
