- O God of armies, bring us back, and light up your face, that we may be saved. (Psalms 80:7)
- And let your name prove faithful and become great to time indefinite, saying; Yehowah of armies, the God of Israel, is God to Israel, and let the house of David your servant be one lasting before you. (1 Chronicles 17:24)
- This is what Yehowah of armies, the God of Israel, has said; They will yet say this word in the land of Judah and in his cities, when I shall gather their captives, May Yehowah bless you, O righteous dwelling place, O holy mountain. (Jeremiah 31:23)
- The one sitting still in this city will die by the sword and by the famine and by the pestilence, but the one who is going out and who actually falls away to the Chaldeans who are laying siege against you will keep living, and his soul will certainly come to be his as a spoil. (Jeremiah 21:9)
- Even to Zedekiah the king of Judah I spoke according to all these words, saying; Bring YOUR necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people and keep on living. (Jeremiah 27:12)
- For on account of the anger of Yehowah it took place in Jerusalem and in Judah, until he had cast them out of his sight. And Zedekiah began to rebel against the king of Babylon. (2 Kings 24:20)
- And that you should forget Yehowah your Maker, the One stretching out the heavens and laying the foundation of the earth, so that you were in dread constantly the whole day long on account of the rage of the one hemming you in, as though he was all set to bring you to ruin? And where is the rage of the one hemming you in? (Isaiah 51:13)

- Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and keep on living. Why should this city become a devastated place? (Jeremiah 27:17)
