

Jeremiah 51:58• This is what Yehowah of armies has said; The wall of Babylon, although broad, will without fail be demolished,<sup>1</sup> and her gates, although high, will be set aflame with fire. And the peoples will have to toil for simply nothing, and national groups simply for the fire, and they will just tire themselves out.

- Shout a war cry against her on every side. She has given her hand. Her pillars have fallen. Her walls have been torn down. For it is the vengeance of Yehowah. Take YOUR vengeance on her. Just as she has done, do to her. (Jeremiah 50:15)
- And I will turn my attention upon Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth what he has swallowed. And to him nations will stream no more. Also, the wall itself of Babylon must fall. (Jeremiah 51:44)
- The mighty men of Babylon have ceased to fight. They have kept sitting in the strong places. Their mightiness has run dry. They have become women. Her residences have been set on fire. Her bars have been broken. (Jeremiah 51:30)
- Unless Yehowah himself builds the house, it is to no avail that its builders have worked hard on it. Unless Yehowah himself guards the city, it is to no avail that the guard has kept awake. (Psalms 127:1)
- Look! Is it not from Yehowah of armies that peoples will toil on only for the fire, and that national groups will tire themselves out merely for nothing? (Habakkuk 2:13)
- And you must say; This is how Babylon will sink down and never rise up because of the calamity that I am bringing in upon her, and they will certainly tire themselves out. Down to this point are the words of Jeremiah. (Jeremiah 51:64)
- That is why in one day her plagues will come, death and mourning and famine, and she will be completely burned with fire, because Yehowah God, who judged her, is strong. (Revelation 18:8)
