- On this account gird on sackcloth, you people. Beat YOUR breasts and howl, because the burning anger of Yehowah has not turned back from us. (Jeremiah 4:8)
- And in all the different jurisdictional districts, wherever the king's word and his Law were reaching, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting and weeping and wailing. Sackcloth and ashes themselves came to be spread out as a couch for many. (Esther 4:3)
- Howl, you shepherds, and cry out! And wallow about, you majestic ones of the flock, because YOUR days for slaughtering and for YOUR scatterings have been fulfilled, and you must fall like a desirable vessel! (Jeremiah 25:34)
- And over you they will certainly let themselves be heard with their voice and will cry out bitterly. And they will bring up dust upon their heads. In the ashes they will wallow. (Ezekiel 27:30)
- In Gath do not you men tell it out, positively do not weep. In the house of Aphrah wallow in the very dust. (Micah 1:10)
- Profusely she weeps during the night, and her tears are upon her cheeks. She has no one to comfort her from among all her lovers. All her very own companions have dealt treacherously with her. They have become enemies to her. (Lamentations 1:2)
- Over these things I am weeping as a woman. My eye, my eye is running down with waters. For a comforter has become far away from me, someone to refresh my soul. My sons have become those laid desolate, for the enemy has put on great airs. (Lamentations 1:16)
- Therefore this is what Yehowah the God of armies, Yehowah, has said, In all the public squares there will be wailing, and in all the streets people will be saying; Ah! Ah! And they will have to call a farmer to mourning, and to wailing those experienced in lamentation. (Amos 5:16)

- As he got near the gate of the city, why, look! There was a dead man being carried out, the only-begotten son of his mother. Besides, she was a widow. A considerable crowd from the city was also with her. (Luke 7:12)
