- And they proceeded to take Jeremiah and throw him into the cistern of Malchijah the son of the king, which was in the Courtyard of the Guard. So they let Jeremiah down by means of ropes. Now in the cistern there was no water, but mire, and Jeremiah began to sink down into the mire. (Jeremiah 38:6)
- Who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God. (2 Corinthians 1:4)
- For I, I well know your rebelliousness and your stiff neck. If while I am yet alive with you today, you have proved rebellious in behavior toward Yehowah, then how much more so after my death! (Deuteronomy 31:27)
- However, they became disobedient and rebelled against you and kept casting your Law behind their back, and your own prophets they killed, who bore witness against them to bring them back to you, and they went on committing acts of great disrespect. (Nehemiah 9:26)
- And they should not become like their forefathers, a generation stubborn and rebellious, a generation who had not prepared their heart and whose spirit was not trustworthy with God. (Psalms 78:8)
- Like a diamond, harder than flint, I have made your forehead. You must not be afraid of them, and you must not be struck with terror at their faces, for they are a rebellious house. (Ezekiel 3:9)
- And compose a proverbial saying concerning the rebellious house, and you must say concerning them; This is what the Sovereign Lord Yehowah has said; Put the widemouthed cooking pot on, put it on, and also pour water into it. (Ezekiel 24:3)
- And the word of Yehowah continued to occur to me, saying; (Ezekiel 17:11)

- And the people kept saying to me; Will you not tell us what these things have to do with us, that you are doing? (Ezekiel 24:19)
- And when the sons of your people begin to say to you; Will you not tell us what these things mean to you? (Ezekiel 37:18)
