

Ezekiel 16:31 When you built your mound at the head of every way and you made your own height in every public square, yet you became unlike a prostitute in disdaining hire.

[1] - References:

- And I will give you into their hand, and they will certainly tear down your mound and your heights will certainly be pulled down, and they must strip you of your garments and take your beautiful articles and leave you behind naked and nude. (Ezekiel 16:39)